

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“City of Secrets” for iPad, Mac, iPhone, and iPod Touch launches on iTunes App Store

GDANSK, POLAND – March 25, 2011 – Aidem Media, game and entertainment icon in Europe for over a decade with more than 1 million games sold, has launched its next flagship game – ‘City of Secrets’ boasts brilliant HD graphics optimized for modern touch interfaces and was developed with the iPad and iPhone retina display in mind.

A world of revolution, mystery, and adventure awaits players as they pull together the clues and solve puzzles to uncover the sinister plot. ‘City of Secrets’ is a complete tap/point adventure game and like ‘Angry Birds’ appeals to kids of all ages.

City of Secrets is built as a game that is tough for adults to complete, but with a hint system that allows younger players to enjoy the game as well.

In addition to their own titles Aidem Media is also the development muscle behind many other successful games including games with characters licensed from Disney and Warner Brothers.

“Our expertise in developing for the iOS platform allowed us to create the perfect adventure game for the iPad.” said Karolina Szablewska-Olejarz, President of Aidem Media. “We’ll make you laugh and stretch your brain. I’m confident that Aidem Media is one palindrome you will instantly love.”

The iPad, iPhone, iPod Touch versions are available now on the Apple iTunes App Store and the Macintosh version is available on the Apple Mac App Store including ‘Lite’ versions.
